

A Here in this Court.

Q In the Circuit Court for Frederick County?

A In the Circuit Court for Frederick County.

Q Is this divorce an absolute one?

A Yes.

Q Would you give a brief description of the property, please?

A Well - its location and all? It is located on the southeast corner of the intersection of Seventh and North Market, and it is on a lot 22 by approximately 150, facing 22 feet on Market Street; and it has a storeroom on the first floor, and four garages; and the second floor has a 5-room apartment and bath.

Q The building containing the store and apartment - how is it constructed?

A It is brick construction with metal roof.

Q And the garages are--

A Cement block with metal roof.

MR. BENNETT: Now we want to offer a certified copy of the deed to the property, designated as "Exhibit A" and filed with the Bill of Complaint.

Q In this bill of complaint you have asked the Court to appoint a Trustee to sell this real estate, is that correct?

A That's correct.

Q Is this real estate susceptible of partition without material loss and injury to the parties entitled therein?

A No.

Q It is your opinion then, in order to make a division of the interests in this property that the real estate be sold and the proceeds thereof divided among the parties according to their several interests?

A Yes.
